Keeping families close®

The impact of COVID-19 spreads far and wide, and these are difficult times for everyone. We want you to know that all of us at Ronald McDonald House Charities of Idaho are thinking of you and your loved ones amid this uncertainty.

We are happy to be able to move forward with our annual Sporting Clays Tournament albeit a bit differently than in the past. The safety of our sponsors, participants, volunteers, and staff is our utmost priority. In light of current social distancing, mask wearing, and group gathering protocols, our Tournament sponsors and participants will play on their own. The format is still a 100 bird shoot at Black Dog Clays that includes your ammunition, targets, gift and Tournament poster. You can shoot on your own or with your team. The available dates to shoot are October 3, 4, 7, 8, 10 & 11 and you can indicate your preference when you register.

While we will miss the typical comradery of our Tournament, we are excited to still be able to hold the Tournament to support the families and children we serve. If you are not able to participate this year, non-player sponsorships are also available or you can make a donation online.

Sporting Clays is the closest thing to actual field shooting of all shotgun sports. Rather than having clay birds thrown from standardized distances and angles as with skeet or trap, sporting clays courses are designed to simulate the hunting of ducks, pheasants, other upland birds, and even rabbits.

For 32 years, Ronald McDonald House Charities® of Idaho has provided, through their Ronald McDonald House, Ronald McDonald Family Room, and Happy Wheels Hospitality Cart programs, a safe and comfortable place to stay for more than 12,000 families whose children are hospitalized or receiving treatment for an illness or injury. The generosity of the community helps keep families together and near the medical care their children need. All proceeds from this event support RMHC of Idaho programs.

You can help by being involved in the 17th Annual Western States CAT Sporting Clays Tournament fundraiser at Black Dog Clays in Boise. Sign up to participate as a sponsor, individual shooter, or auction donor.
