

Idaho Ronald McDonald House®.

2021 Holiday Giving Suggestions

The Idaho Ronald McDonald House is preparing to re-create “Santa’s Workshop”, our staff can go “shopping” for our guest-families. While medical personnel take care of children facing a medical crisis, we are focused on taking care of their families. Gifts must be new, in original packaging and unwrapped. Thank you for making the holidays bright for our families.

Happy Wheels Carts: small stuffed animals (beanie babies), colored pencils, adult/kid coloring books, playing cards, game cards (Old Maid, Go Fish), small toys (dolls, action figures, Lego kits, match-box cars), small art/craft kits, puzzles, games (checkers, chess), rattles, teethers.

Service Certificates: Hair cut/color, manicure/pedicure, massage, etc. Many guests do not have local transportation so it is most convenient if the business is within walking distance of Ronald McDonald House. These kinds of gifts provide an opportunity for parents to relax and de-stress.

Clothing and Shoes: Casual shirts/tops and pants/leggings/ sweat pants, hoodies, pajamas, bras, underpants, socks, hats and gloves, slippers, shoes and boots. Due to emergencies, some families arrive with only what they are wearing. All sizes of clothing are needed, preemie to adult, including plus sizes. Ronald McDonald House accepts new clothing.

Food: Frozen turkeys and hams, potatoes, stuffing, cranberries, cake mix, etc. (We create food boxes and send families home with a traditional holiday meal.)

If you don't have time to shop, you may order items from our online Amazon Smile gift registry and have it shipped directly to the House.
