• The Inspiration •

THE CAUSE

For over 34 years, Ronald McDonald House Charities of Idaho has provided a safe, comfortable place to stay for thousands of families whose children are hospitalized or receiving treatment for an illness or injury. The generosity of everyone involved in the J.R. Simplot Memorial Golf Tournament helps keep families together and close to the medical care their children need. All proceeds from this event are used locally to support Ronald McDonald House Charities of Idaho programs.

THE EVENT

The one day, four-person scramble will have a 9:00 a.m. start. A boxed lunch and snacks will be served on the course. There will be contests on the holes to make the round fun for all skill levels.

THE INSPIRATION

J.R. 'Jack' Simplot began his career in 1923. That's when, at the age of 14, he quit school and went into business on his own near the small farming community of Declo, ID. Pouring boundless energy into his many endeavors, he became known for his business achievements and philanthropy.

Over 34 years ago, when local community leaders came together to open a Ronald McDonald House in Boise, J.R. Simplot stepped forward. He provided the funding needed to purchase the home at 101 Warm Springs Avenue. And over the years, the Simplot family and the J.R. Simplot Company secured the success of RMHC of Idaho with their support and volunteer resources.
